

Curriculum Vitae

Corrie Silcox, MPH

Email: csilcox@sf.edu

EDUCATION:

Post-graduate Certificate – Epidemiology and Biostatistics, 2009

School of Public Health (SPH)
Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA

Master of Public Health, 2007

College of Graduate Health Studies (CGHS)
A.T. Still University, Kirksville, MO

BS in Liberal Studies with Chemistry and Allied Health focus, 2003

University of Saint Francis, Fort Wayne, IN

AS in Paramedic Science, 2002

University of Saint Francis, Fort Wayne, IN

CERTIFICATIONS:

1998-Present First Aid, CPR, and AED, American Red Cross

2006-Present NIMS 100, 200, 300, 400, 700, 800

2013 PER 220

2002-2012 ACLS, PALS, PEPP, PHTLS, CEVO, EVOC, AHA BLS Instructor

2008- Present CDC Mass Antibiotic Dispensing trainings, including Points of Dispensing and Public Information and Communication

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

2014-Present Subject Matter Expert, University of Saint Francis, Fort Wayne, IN

- Coordinate program objectives and goals with Program Chair
- Guide and assist adjunct faculty
- Review course materials, recommend changes in course offerings
- Communicate with faculty, deans, students, and prospective students to ensure positive and engaging learning experience

2010-Present Adjunct Instructor, University of Saint Francis, Fort Wayne, IN

- Taught master-level courses: Environmental Epidemiology, Occupational Health, Emergency Response and Homeland Security, Advanced Topics in Environmental Health, Safety Compliance, Professional Portfolio
- Develop course curriculum and syllabi

- Engage student learning and create quality learning experiences with stimulating online classroom environment

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE:

2010-Present Emergency Preparedness Coordinator, Huntington County Health Department and Noble County Health Department, IN

- Public Health Preparedness Grant coordinator.
- Ebola preparedness activities.
- Create, update and maintain plans associated with preparedness, mitigation, response, recovery, and protection.
- Locate, assess, contract and create site-specific plans for distribution points.
- Responsible for all grant activities, including submission of most recent plans, creation of Standard Operating Procedures, completion of LTAR activities, development of three year training and exercise program, and a distribution point set up and prophylaxis drill.
- Update and create Crisis and Emergency Risk Communication Plans, Standard Operating Procedures
- Responsible for coordination across jurisdictions and agencies to create functional and dynamic preparedness plans.

2008-2009 Strategic National Stockpile Coordinator, Fort Wayne-Allen County Department of Health, Fort Wayne, IN

- Ensured Fort Wayne and Allen County are prepared to receive, store, and distribute assets from the Strategic National Stockpile.
- Located, assessed, contracted and created site-specific plans for distribution points.
- Assisted in the creation of signage, posters and other communication materials for clinics and drills in languages most common in the community.
- Maintained constant contact and provided updates via newsletters, emails and mailers to Community Care Centers and MRC members.
- Coordinated with many agencies and groups on the local, state and federal level.
- Planned and executed a preparedness drill involving a drive-thru point of dispensing site. Captured data to assess throughput and overall drill effectiveness.
- Developed protocols for antiviral distribution, personal protective equipment dispersal, management of stockpile assets and vaccination for H1N1 flu in summer and fall of 2009.
- Attended meetings, educational workshops and local and district-wide drills and trainings.
- Assisted in the training of new CERT members.
- Planning committee member for the Business Emergency Preparedness Summit involving 100 attendees representing 70 businesses.

2002-2010 Paramedic, Parkview Health System, Huntington County and Whitley County, IN

- Responsible for the delivery of quality pre-hospital care to patients of all ages in a fast paced, critical care environment.
- Coordinated the Community CPR Education program.
- Created and presented a department-wide educational program on appropriate charting techniques for successful billing and increased professionalism.
- Member of the Audit and Review, Hiring and Educational Committees.
- Participated in the development of the Northeast Indiana Regional Protocols.
- Field trainer for new employees and preceptor for students, basic through paramedic.
- Creator and editor of Answering the Call, the PHH EMS newsletter.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE:

2009 Research Assistant
Trauma Services, Parkview Hospital, Fort Wayne, IN

- Reviewed and analyzed data for a cohort study on helmet use and head injuries in preschool children

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE:

2012-Present District Representative, Public Health Emergency Preparedness Cooperative Agreement (PHEPCA) Advisory Committee, Indiana State Department of Health

- Attend meetings as the sole representative of Indiana Public Health Preparedness District 3
- Provide insight and guidance to Preparedness Division of ISDH

2014-Present Public Health Representative, District 3 Hospital Preparedness Planning Committee (D3HPPC) Exercise Planning Committee

- Present public health interests relative to the exercise to committee

2012-2013 Local Health Department Representative, Planning Committee, Indiana State Department of Health

- 2013 Local Health Department Preparedness Summit Planning Committee
- Researched presenters, developed agenda and session content

AWARDS AND HONORS:

2007 Dean's List, A.T. Still University

2011 Third Place Governor's Cup EMS Competition, Paramedic, Indiana

COMMUNITY SERVICE ACTIVITIES:

2010-Present Boar's Head and Yule Log Festival Volunteer, Plymouth UCC

2014-Present Volunteer, Noble County Medical Reserve Corps.